

Give Your Dreams Positive Interpretations

by Samuel Adeosun - Sunday, October 14, 2018

<https://dhm.com.ng/give-your-dreams-positive-interpretations/>

For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed (Jeremiah 29:8).

In certain Christian circles, many believe that eating in your dream is ominous; they associate it with the activities of demons. But could there possibly be anything wrong with eating in your sleep? What's the position of God's Word on the subject?

Let's begin by reviewing Isaiah 29:7-8: "And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel ... shall be as a dream of a night vision. It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite...." If a man eats in his dream and still wakes up hungry, it means he really didn't eat anything. This therefore shows there's nothing to eating in your dream; it's just the imagination of your spirit.

Satan thrives on the fear and ignorance of people. If you had a dream for example, and then you're uncertain about the meaning, satan could launch an attack against your mind by suggesting negative interpretations to that dream. Fear might then creep in, which ultimately could pave way for demons to have a field day. So the problem isn't with the dream; it has a lot more to do with accepting the negative interpretation of the dream brought to you by satan.

So, you ought to be smart to always subject your dreams to the Word of God. Don't accept the lie from satan that eating in your dream is ominous; if anything, it means prosperity. Throughout the Bible, there's no place satan gave people food to eat in a dream; only God fed people in their dream, example is Peter (Acts 10:9-15). Ask Prophet Isaiah!

If you found yourself eating in your dream, don't be afraid. Wake up and begin to prophesy: "I was eating in my dream; therefore I shall always have food. I shall always have plenty!" Don't wake up crying that someone has bewitched you in your dream, for you're a new creation in Christ Jesus, and every food you eat is sanctified by the Word of God and prayer. Besides, no weapon fashioned against you shall prosper, be it in your dream or in real life. Isaiah 54:17; Luke 10:19.

Happy Sunday.

God bless you.

PDF generated by Discovery House Ministries